IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CRIMINAL REVISION APPLICATION NO.155 OF 2000

M/s.Morparia & Co. & Anr. ...Applicants

Versus

Mrs.Kalpana P.Choksi & Anr. ...Respondents

.....

None for Applicants.

Mr.H.V.Kode for Respondent No.1.

Respondent No.1 is present in Court.

Mr.K.V.Saste, A.P.P. for Respondent No.2.

.....

CORAM: A.M.KHANWILKAR, J.

MARCH 9, 2005.

P.C.

1. It is reported that during the pendency of this Revision Application, parties have amicably settled the matter. As per the said arrangement, Applicants have offered to pay amount in terms of the settlement arrived at between the parties, duly signed by the parties as well as their Advocates.

2. Respondent No.1/original Complainant, who is personally present in Court, states through her Counsel, that she is not interested in precipitating the matter and will be content if the Revision is disposed of.

3. Taking overall view of the matter and in the interest of justice, the Revision Application is allowed by consent, by reducing the sentence to the sentence already undergone by the Applicants. The sentence as granted by the Court below is modified to the above extent.

4. Revision Application disposed of on the above terms.

A.M.KHANWILKAR, J.